Southern California Jaycee Swim Finals Begin Tonight at Camino

Fourteen Southland junior college swim squads invade El Camino's new ultra-modern pools tonight for initial action in the Southern California Jaycee aqua finals. Preliminaries and finals continue tomorrow and Saturday with starting events at 1 and 8 p.m. Adult admission to the "water battles" is $1, with children admitted for 50 cents.

Representatives from the Metropolitan, Eastern, and Western Conferences will see action in the week-end swimming with winning entries journeying to Fresno the following week for state competition.

Metro Favorites
Long Beach and Santa Monica, both strong Metro Conference participants, rate co-favorites for top team laurels with Fullerton, Los Angeles City College, and El Camino, members of the Eastern, Western, and Metro circuits, respectively, also tabbed potent contenders. Long Beach, Fullerton and LACC convincingly finished on top in their respective Conference finals although the Corsairs defeated the Vikings in an earlier dual meeting.

Among the outstanding junior college frogmen competing for top aquatic honors are Long Beach sprinter Bill Gilchrist, diver Mike Copeland of Santa Monica, and El Camino's George Allen. Allen set two new Metropolitan records Friday in the finals, splashing to a 200-yard backstroke in 2:05 and a 2:22.6 mark in the 200-yard individual medley.

Other Threats
Other competing swim threats include Orange Coast's Art Bowman, a 440 specialist; Lee Phillips of Fullerton, and Paul Lugosi of LACC, both in the 50- and 100-yard freestyle events, and Fullerton diver Jim Griffin. Not to be left out in prominent mention are 200-yard backstroke John Stevenson of Santa Monica and Los Angeles' 440 man, Dick Starbird.

The lone event scheduled tonight is at the 1500-meter distance while full scale activities will get under way tomorrow afternoon. Highlighting the attractions will be the presentation of medals and trophies to winners of various events on both Friday and Saturday evenings.

The hosting Warriors, boasting their recently opened $450,000 swim arena, will place into competition 10 other entries in addition to Allen. Those seeking swim honors for El Camino include Dave Garrett, Mike Peters, Paul Cooke, John Wyness, Don Eld, John Walsh, Howard Terry, Bill Bryson, Don Hamilton and Ken Williams.

Little Theater Seeking Talent

Longing to use that voice, comedy flair, or dancing ability? The variety troupe associated with ACCENT Theatre of Torrance will give you a chance, according to Phyllis Foss, director and "Talent Scout" for the organization. Accent's engagements for the variety show staged by ACCENT at the invitation of other civic groups are on the agenda.

So far a Gay Nineties program, featuring barbershop quartette and Can-can numbers, has been performed; however, modern and novelty numbers of all kinds can now be used, Mrs. Foss said.

Appearances to date have included the benefit for the YMCA, a Masonic banquet, a fund-raising party staged by the South Bay Osteopathic Auxiliary, and the coming dinner at the First Christian Church. In the future are engagements before the Eagles and Elks of Redondo Beach, the Elks of Torrance, and the Hunting and Fishing Lodge of Compton.

"We especially need a comedy team and a glib master of ceremonies," Mrs. Foss pointed out. "And we're none too long on singers."

Persons interested in the variety troupe may come to the YMCA, 2080 Washington, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, for auditions. Those who wish additional information may call Mrs. Iris Steffen, assistant director.

Y-Indian Tribes Increased to 10

The Torrance Y-Indian Guide Tribes were increased to 10 at induction ceremonies held at the local YWCA last Saturday night.

More than 250 people witnessed the induction team from the Gardena YMCA Longhouse carry out the colorful ritual. Local tribes inducted were the Blackfeet, Crow, Cheyenne, Gomanche, Apache, Mohawk, Arapahoe, and Sioux.

The evening started with a potluck supper, followed by a song session led by Milt Isbell of the Navajo Tribe. Additional entertainment was provided by Tom Thurston of the Cherokee Tribe with films of the Y-Indian Guide snow trip taken last February.
